24-0108-FOIA	Mears, Diane	-	04/29/2024	04/30/2024	On March 23, 2024, my husband and I were aboard the Carnival Cruise Freedom ship when it caught fire. We were on an outer deck when we heard an extremely loud boom. Initially, we thought maybe it was thunder, but it was much louder than I'd ever heard and we had been outside and didn't see any lightning. It was lightly raining at the time. I was taking a video of the pool and had just stopped videoing and seconds later we heard the boom. We've been attempting to obtain information from Carnival about the incident, but they've informed us that it's confidential and ceased further correspondence. Despite our inquiries, Carnival seems unwilling to provide details or offer any refund for our disrupted cruise. I'm skeptical that lightning caused the fire, as we were outside and didn't witness any lightning strikes. If the fire was caused by some negligence on the part of Carnival, I would like to know. I understand there was an investigation and would like to request the results of that report.	05/02/2024	Closed
