

United States Marine Highway Program

Marine Highway M-84

Name Route: Columbia, Willamette, and Snake Rivers

Sponsor: Port of Portland, OR; Port of Benton, WA; Port of Lewiston, ID, and the Idaho Transportation Department

Route Designated: 2010

Landside Route Served: Interstate 84

Route Description: The M-84 connects to the M-5 Route in Astoria, OR and includes the Columbia, Willamette, and Snake Rivers, connecting commercial navigation channels, ports, and harbors. It spans Oregon, Washington, and Idaho from Astoria, OR, to Lewiston, ID, and a 26-mile portion of the Willamette River from Willamette Falls to the confluence with the Columbia River.

Route Length: 504 Statute Miles

